

Still Ill
The Smiths

[Intro] F#

G#m E F#
I degree today that life is simply taking and not giving
G#m E F#
England is mine and it owes me a living
G#m E F#
But ask me why and i ll spit in your eye
G#m E F#
Oh ask me why and i ll spit in your eye
Ebm G#m E F#
But we cannot cling to the old dreams anymore
Ebm G#m E F#
No we cannot cling to those dreams

G#m E
Does the body rule mind?
F#
Or does the mind rule the body?
G#m E F#
I dunno

G#m E F#
Under the iron bridge we kissed
G#m E F#
And although i ended up with sore lips
Ebm G#m E F#
It just wasnt like the old days anymore
Ebm G#m E
No it wasnt like those days
F# G#m E F#
Am i still ill?

(G#m E F#)

G#m E
Does the body rule the mind
F#
Or does the mind rule the body?

G#m E F#
I dunno
G#m E F#
Ask me why and I ll die
G#m E F#
Oh ask me why and I ll die
Ebm G#m E F#

And if you must go to work tomorrow

Ebm G#m E F#

Well if I were you I wouldn't bother

G#m E F#

For there are brighter sides to life

And I should know because I've seen them

G#m E F#

But not very often

G#m E F#

Under the iron bridge we kissed

G#m E F#

And although it ended up with sore lips

Ebm G#m E F#

It just wasn't like the old days anymore

Ebm G#m E

No it wasn't like those days

F# G#m E F#

Am I still ill?

(G#m E F#)
