

Still Ill
The Smiths

[Intro] A

Bm G A
I degree today that life is simply taking and not giving
Bm G A
England is mine and it owes me a living
Bm G A
But ask me why and i ll spit in your eye
Bm G A
Oh ask me why and i ll spit in your eye
F#m Bm G A
But we cannot cling to the old dreams anymore
F#m Bm G A
No we cannot cling to those dreams

Bm G
Does the body rule mind?
A
Or does the mind rule the body?
Bm G A
I dunno

Bm G A
Under the iron bridge we kissed
Bm G A
And although i ended up with sore lips
F#m Bm G A
It just wasnt like the old days anymore
F#m Bm G
No it wasnt like those days
A Bm G A
Am i still ill?

( Bm G A )

Bm G
Does the body rule the mind
A
Or does the mind rule the body?

Bm G A
I dunno
Bm G A
Ask me why and I ll die
Bm G A
Oh ask me why and I ll die
F#m Bm G A

And if you must go to work tomorrow

F#m Bm G A

Well if I were you I wouldn't bother

Bm G A

For there are brighter sides to life

And I should know because I've seen them

Bm G A

But not very often

Bm G A

Under the iron bridge we kissed

Bm G A

And although it ended up with sore lips

F#m Bm G A

It just wasn't like the old days anymore

F#m Bm G

No it wasn't like those days

A Bm G A

Am I still ill?

( Bm G A )