There was a time I couldn t see myself growing older But then I went for a walk when I came

I went coast to coast, and from star to star
But that s how you learn, who you really are

[Chorus]

Home is where your heart is Find where you belong, start to take control, show a little soul
Then you feel who you are
Home is where your heart is
But I leave you with a kiss, there s so much more than this
When you know who you are
