

Something To Die For
The Sounds

All by ear!

Without Capo EADGBE

Dm, Bb

Dm Working for another hour tonight Bb

Staring at the wall and let the time just pass me by Dm

You might think you know me, but it s all just a face Bb

Trying to ignore when people screaming my name Dm
(Screaming my name)

Walking by a house with colorful lights
There s a sign, an invitation from the woman inside
Talk about your boyfriend, talk about your wife
It s just a different way of living your life

Bb When something s right, then something is worth to die for Dm C
Bb When I feel that something is wrong, then something is worth to fight for Dm C
Bb Don t say goodbye, just leave an open door Dm C
Bb I wanna hear you say, you give me something to die for Dm C

Searching for another reason to stay
Slowly my regrets are fading away
You leave me on my own to find out what s real
You say you want your freedom, but it s not how I feel

When something s right, then something is worth to die for
When I feel that something is wrong, then something is worth to fight for

Don t say goodbye, just leave an open door
I wanna hear you say, you give me something to die for
When I feel that something is right
You give me something to die for

When something s right, then something is worth to die for
When I feel that something is wrong, then something is worth to fight for
When something s right, then something is worth to die for

When I feel that something is wrong, then something is worth to fight for

Don't say goodbye, just leave an open door

I wanna hear you say, you give me something to die for

I wanna hear you say, you give me something to die for

I wanna hear you say, you give me something to die for
