Souther Hillman Furay Somebody Must Be Wrong by J.D. Souther

G C D G C D
Every time I write myself a letter
G C D G C D
Somehow it always goes to you
G C D G C D
There must be a way to do this better
F D7
Without giving away the ending like I always do
G C D G C D
Now I love you when your dressed up in your whites and things
G C D G C D
But you and just your boots and dreams will do
G C D G C D
I d like to say I believe in love I believe in you
F D7
But then you go around walking I get jealous too
Gm C7 Gm C7
Somebody must be wrong it s you worrying all night pacing till the dawn
Gm C7 D7
Sometimes I wonder is anybody really that strong
Gm C7 Gm C7
Somebody must be wrong
G C D G C D
You can walk away from me right this minute
G C D G C D
But you d be back before the sun was down
G C D
You see that rings on your finger would turn to dirt
G C D
And your smile would begining to hurt
F D7

You re gonna leave your little heart lying there on the ground
