

And you just can't sleep at night in a solid gold room

E E7 B B7

There's trouble in paradise you never turn out those lights

F# B

You just can't close your eyes in a solid gold room

Bm E Bm E Bm E Bm E

There's trouble

Bm E Bm E

Where the warm winds don't blow

Bm E Bm E

And the stars don't seem to shine so bright

Bm E Bm Bm E Bm E Bm E

Nearly everybody knows nearly nobody minds

SOLO

E B

You've been hanging at the stage door waving at the limousine

E B

It's the same cat life that we use in graveyard scenes

E

So tomorrow morning you go back to school

B

Acting as if nothing has changed

G F# B

Well there's no use playing if you're winning at a losing game

E E7 B B7

There's trouble in paradise the story don't sound too nice

F# B B7

And you just can't sleep at night in a solid gold room

E E7 B B7

There's trouble in paradise you never turn out those lights

F# B

You just can't close your eyes in a solid gold room
