You took a picture of me the morning after
Bm E

To capture the first breath of our old souls love
As your blue eyes shone brightly
You called me red, white, and beauty
You said I d never grow old
And If I did you d come along
I know I still make you nervous
So just smoke all my cigarettes
And remember the first time
You kissed me that dawn
[Chorus]
I died, Lord I swear that I died
When first I, I laid eyes on you
And when I try to make sense of my life
It just doesn t seem fitting without you
Well, I m not a child, but I m hardly a man
I ve got doubts and a poor understanding
I can t give you much except all of my love
And a promise I ll never abandon
