[Verse]

E E7sus4 A
You should have been an angel, it would have suited you,
Dsus2 A Dsus2 Asus2 E5 E5

My gold leafed triptych angel, she knows just what to do.

E E7sus4 A
In the half light of morning, in a world between the sheets,
Dsus2 A Asus2 E5 E5 Dsus2
I swear I saw her angel wing, my vision was complete.

Dsus2 Asus2 E5 E5
And I know I ll never want another lover, my sweet.

Dsus2
Can there be more in this world,
Asus2 B5alt
Than the joy of just watching you sleep
I don t know just what to feel,

E E7sus4
Won t someone tell me my love is real

[Instrumental]

A Asus4 A E E7sus4 A Asus4 A

[Verse]

E Dsus2
Are we etched in stone or just scratched in the sand,
A D A E
Waiting for the waves to come and re-claim the land.

E Dsus2
Will the sun shine, all sweetness and light,
A Dsus2 Asus2 E
Burn us to a cinder, our third stone satellite.

[Chorus 1]

E Dsus2

I m on a tightrope, baby, nine miles high,

A Dsus2 E

Striding through the clouds on my ribbon in the sky.

E Dsus2

I m on a tightrope, baby, one thing I ve found,

A

I don t know how to stop, and it s a

G Bm E5

Long, long, long, long way down.

[Verse]

E5 Dsus2

She s all that ever mattered and all that ever will,

A Dsus2 Asus2 E

My cup it runneth over, I ll never get my fill.

E Dsus2

The boats in the harbour slip from their chains,

A Dsus2 Asus2 E

Head for new horizons, lets do the same.

[Chorus 2]

E Dsus2

I m on a tightrope, baby, nine miles high,

A Dsus2 E

Striding through the clouds on my ribbon in the sky.

E Dsus2

I m on a tightrope, baby, one thing I ve found,

I don t know how to stop,

[Verse]

E Dsus2

And it s a tightrope, baby, nine miles high,

A Dsus2 E

Striding through the clouds on my ribbon in the sky.

E Dsus2

I m on a tightrope, baby, one thing I ve found,

A

I don t know how to stop, and it s a

G Bm E5
