verse 1:

G                Am                C                E
First and last men walk this earth but only a few survive
G                Am                C                E/G#
I m the wizard of aus and I ve got it all planned for my first nuclear device
G                Am                C                E/G#
I don t really care about which way you vote cos my gerrymander works out fine
G                Am                C                E/G#
I sell desert stretches like a big rubber glove to Japan for a nuclear device

If I could get lucky I d secede from the states, I d buy the country at an incredible rate!

verse 2:

```

G                Am                C                E/G#
Brisbane men stay home at night cos I outlawed all of the vice
G                Am                C                E/G#
I m the wizard of aus and I ve rolled the streets dreaming of a nuclear device
G                Am                C                E/G#
If I could get lucky I d go out on my own and sell Australia the rice
