

Peace And Hate
The Submarines

This is a real simple song to play :)

I m not sure what the third Chord is exactly. I play an Am without the A base.

So

it looks like this

E--0----

B--1----

G--2----

D--2----

A--x----

E--x----

If you are strumming, a normal Am sounds finds, however, if you want to accent the base not, don t hit the A string, hit the D string. All other chords are played normally.

Dm C

Behind the sweet

Am

Summer fade

Dm

And on a coast

C Am

Not Far away

Dm C

Sometimes we glide

Am

Sometimes we fall

Dm

And there are times

C Am

We don t get up at all

Dm C

You had your doubts

Am

We had our rows

Dm

Said our goodbyes but

C Am

Now we re taking vows

Dm C

Behind the sweet

Am

Summer fade

Dm

You ll knock me down

C Am

Like a tidal wave

Dm C

I should be gone

Am

Cast away

Dm

But still I d love you

C

Am

Through all peace and hate

Dm C

In light of all

Am

Darkest things

Dm

The fire glimmers

Am

And the darkness sings

(I think you get the idea)

If you should go

I won t have you to blame

For my unhappiness for darker days

When will I learn

It s not your fault

Breaking down could not

Be cured by breaking up

Cause breaking down could not

Be cured by breaking up

I should be gone

Cast away

But still I d love you

Through all peace and hate

In light of all

Darkest things

The fire glimmers

And the darkness sings

Forever more

Peace and hate

Love and war

Declare a new state

Forever more

Peace and hate

Love and war

Declare a new state

Yell and shout and kick me out
Then forget what we fought about
But don t give up
These storms are passing

Yell and shout and kick me out
Then forget what we fought about
But don t give up
This storm is passing
