

You Me The Bourgeoisie
The Submarines

Capo on the second fret

Intro: Bm

Bm G
Here I am with all the pleasures of the first world
D A
Laid out before me who am I to breakdown?

Bm G D
Everyday I wake up, I choose Love I choose Light
A
And I try, it s too easy just to fall apart

Bm G D A

D G
Oh my baby don t be so distressed
A
Were done with politesse
F G
It s time to be so brutally honest about
D G
The way we know long for something fine
A
When we pine for higher ceilings
F G
And bourgeois happy feelings

Bm G
And here we are in the center of the first world
D A
It s laid out before us, who are we to break down?

Bm G D
Everyday we wake up, we choose Love we choose Light
A D G A F G
And we try, it s too easy just to fall apart

D G
Plastic Bottles Imported Water Cars we drive wherever we want to
A F G
Clothes we buy it s sweatshop labor Drugs from corporate enablers
D G A
We re not living the Good life Unless we re fighting the Good fight
F G Bm
You and Me just trying to get it right

Bm	G	D	A
In the center of the first world It s laid out before us, who are we to break down?

Bm G D

Everyday we wake up, we choose Love we choose Light

A

And we try, it s too easy just to fall apart

D G A

Love can free us from all excess From our deepest debts

F G D

Cause when our hearts are full we need much less

[illegible]

Bm
G
 But Here we are in the center of the first world
D
A
 It s laid out before us, who are we to break down?

Bm G
Here we are in the center of the first world
D A
It s laid out before us, who are we to break down?

Bm G D

Everyday we wake up, we choose Love we choose Light

A

And we try, it s too easy just to fall apart

Bm
D

 Everyday we wake up, we choose Love we choose Light

A

 And we try, it s too easy just to fall apart

Bm G D A till the end.

This is my first time to post a song so I hope you guys like it.