We touch each other s faces

We start to sweat and the sky turns red

Am

Tell me that you know

Life s not fair

C

If we re gonna make it

G

Then we re half way there

Am

Tell me that you know

F

That I really care

C G

I swear

C

Let s melt the sugar

Under the meteor shower

F

On the hottest night

G

In July

C

A sticky alter

F

There s nothing but a towel spread out

G

As we both lie

C

We ll melt the sugar

It s melting on our faces

It s running down our places
