Melt The Sugar
The Summer Obsession
CFG
This is the sweetest moment
This is what we both wanted
We are the same but we re so different
I untie your shoelaces
We touch each other s faces
We start to sweat and the sky turns red
Am
Tell me that you know
Life s not fair
If we re gonna make it
Then we re half way there
Tell me that you know
That I really care
C G
I swear
Let s melt the sugar
Under the meteor shower
        F
On the hottest night
   G
In July
A sticky alter
There s nothing but a towel spread out
As we both lie
We ll melt the sugar
It s melting on our faces
```

```
It s running down our places
That we both hide in the dark tonight
This is the way we do things
Spontaneous exciting
I wish the world was always this inviting
Am
Tell me that you know
Life s not fair
If we re gonna make it
Then we re half way there
Αm
Tell me that you know
That I really care
C G
I swear
Let s melt the sugar
Under the meteor shower
On the hottest night
     G
In July
A sticky alter
There s nothing but a towel spread out
As we both lie
Am
Tell me that you know
Life s not fair
If we re gonna make it
