Medicine The Sundays The SUNDAYS tabbed by: Kate Music and lyrics by: David Gavurin and Harriet Wheeler Tuning: Standard Capo: None/Wherever best suits you. Notes: The way this song is played, it seems like there are two guitars, one of them seems to be playing chord fragments and riffs, the other is an electric guitar playing single strummed chords and seems to be guiding the song along mostly. I ve tried to chord them both so that you can play whichever you like, or if you play with a friend or record yourself, can play both parts. The format for these chords is as follows... Two lines of chords to be played simultaneously for every one line of lyrics.
