

When Im thinking About You
The Sundays

INTRO:

G- Em G- Em

A- Em A- D-

VERSE 1:

G Em
Over the rooftops a plane in the sky.
G Em
Beat of a bass drum, cars passing me by.
A Em
Under a bridge dark then back into light.
A D
River of raincoats and a forest of faces.

VERSE 2:

G Em
Still for a moment then red into green.
G Em
Slow shuffling shoes whisper sight unseen.
A Em
Row upon row of houses return an empty stare.
A D
Letting the daydream for a little while longer.

CHORUS 1:

G D Am
Hey, hope I ll never wake,
C
When I m thinking about you.
G D Am
Yea-yeah, hope I ll never wake,
C Am *C6 C6
Coz now I m thinking about you.

VERSE 3:

G Em
Two-minute hailstorm then melts into rain.
G Em
I will (sling me a rainbow?), it s sunny again.
A Em
Swallows overhead while the traffic snarls below.
A D
Could I, could I keep dreaming for a little while longer?

CHORUS 2:

G D Am
Yeah, Hope I ll never wake,

C

When I m thinking about you.

G

D

Am

So that you know I never want to wake,

C

Coz now I m thinking about you.

BRIDGE:

Em

F

When you re searching your soul

C

And you re searching for pleasure,

Am

How often pain is all you find.

Em

F

But when you re coasting along

C

And nobody s trying too hard,

D

You can turn around and like where you are.

INSTRUMENTAL:

G- D- Am C- G- D- Am C-

too-doot too-doot...

CHORUS 3:

G

D

Am

Hey yeah, and I hope I ll never wake,

C

When I m thinking about you.

G

D

Am

And I close my eyes yeah, now I ll never never wake,

C

Am

G

So why should I stop thinking about you?