

Surfer Joe
The Surfaris

Surfer Joe:The Surfaris.
Top of the charts in 1962 & 63.
B-side of the record was the instrumental,
Wipe Out.

#1. (Capo 1st fret for original.)

G
Down in Doheny where the surfers all go,
C
there s a big bleach blondie, named Surfer Joe.
G
He s got a green surfboard and a Woody to match,
D
and when he s ridin the freeway s,
G
man, is he hard to catch.

CHORUS:

G C
Surfer Joe..Now, look at him go..whoa..whoa..whoa,
G
Surfer, Surfer, Surfer Joe-o-o..Go man go-o-o.
D C G D
Oh-oh, oh, oh, oh, Surfer Joe.

#2.

G
I saw him one day flyin down the road,
C
with tenty-six surfboards and a hundred pound load.
G
I knew where he was headin, tryin to reach..
D G
the playground of the surfers, Doheny Beach.

CHORUS:

#3.

G
He went down to Huntington Beach one week,
C
for the annual surfer s convention meet.
G Hangin five and walkin the nose and when
D G
the meet was over, the trophy was Joe s.

CHORUS:

#4.

G

Surfer Joe joined Uncle Sam's Marines today,

C

they stationed him at Pendleton, not far away.

G

they cut off his big blonde locks, I'm told,

D

G

and when he went on manoeuvres, Joe caught cold.

CHORUS:

#5.

G

Now, no, that didn't stop him, or keep him away.

C

When the surf was up, he still had his day.

G

They caught him at the Trestle, down by the sea,

D

G

and now, poor Joe is doin' K.P.

CHORUS:

A sixties smash from Kraziekhat.