

Burden Of Tomorrow
The Tallest Man On Earth

Okay , so here s a tab for imo the best song by the tallest man on earth.
Standard tunning and no capo , so you can play along without any trouble.

G C/G G
Oh I was sent to find the lonesome place
C/G Am
Where I was lost but left to trace
Em C D , D4 or D7 , your call
By carving riddles on the lonesome vine
G C/G G
Oh but rumor has it that I wasn t born
C/G Am
I just walked in one frosty morn
Em C D , D4 or D7 , your call
Into the vision of some vacant mind

G C/G G C/G
Oh once I held a pony by its flagging mane
G C/G G C/G
And once I called the shadow in the turning game
C Bm Am G
But I will fight this stranger that you should fear
C Bm Am G G/C and repeat
So I won t be a burden of tomorrow dear

Aww Xavier s on the border of the sun

Swings on the chambers of your guns

And tries to shoot the chord and light the path

Aww but hell I m just a blind man on the plains

I drink my water when it rains

And live by chance among the lightning strikes

Oh once I held a glacier to an open flame
And once I felt like wildcat in the fallen game
But I will fight this stranger that you should fear
So I won t be a burden of tomorrow dear

Oh the singer s on the edge to feed the canyon s mouth
They will go on forever til they sing you out of time
But I will fight this stranger that you should fear

So I won't be a burden of tomorrow dear
