

On Every Page
The Tallest Man On Earth

Tallest Man On Earth

On Every Page, from the new album There's No Leaving Now

All chords relative to capo

Some odd ones:

F7Sus4 = x20200

Bmin6 = x20100 " With these two he moves quickly from the E7sus4 to the Bmin6, and plays the g string then the b string in each case.

Ebsus2/C = x20230

This song has a lot of "twiddly" bits on the high e and b strings, revolving around the 3rd and 5th fret I think. These are just the basic chords, but if you play around with adding stuff on the bottom two strings then I think this is pretty close so far.

Verse

Bbm Ebsus2/C
When you just tell them what I cannot say

G# C# F7Sus4 Bmin6
when you just shine upon the ghosts along my way

Bbm Ebsus2/C
I drop the game of throwing knives alone

G# C#
there must be marks on every tree

F7Sus4 Bmin6 F#Sus2 F# F7Sus4 Bmin6
from the past to our home

Bbm Ebsus2/C
Only the mayfly used to tell me so

now here is august, drop your weight, just let go

Bbm Ebsus2/C
now midnight sun takes turns with northern lights

will I ever have to feel what those blades were about?

Prechorus

F#Sus2 F# F7Sus4 Bmin6

(here he goes into the more traditional, alternating bass note fingerpicking style)

F# C#

In that sound of sighing, that empty howl

F7Sus4 Bmin6 Bbm Bbm/F

and all the everloving bends in the line of your tries

some ends forgotten and some others believed

whatever happened to the boy is now a tale for the seas

Chorus

F# C# G#

when you know youâ€™re already young

like the grass wither to become

F#Sus2 F7Sus4 Bmin6 F7Sus4 Bmin6

again and free,

Bbm

itâ€™s all weâ€™ll ever be

Here he does a lick that he hums over which is based around a G chord, and the 3rd frets

on the B and high E strings

And I think thatâ€™s it! Just repeat the verse/chorus bits until the last verse, where he slows back down into the more flamenco style.

I donâ€™t remember where i learned to dive but I am humble for the rocks when I try and somehow I am lowered onto the waves now with you I feel the sun and the salt on my face

Prechorus

In that sound of sighing, that empty howl
and all the everloving bends in the line of your tries
some ends forgotten and some others believed
whatever happened to the boy is now a tale for the seas

Chorus

when you know you're already young
like the grass wither to become
again and free,
it's all we'll ever be

Slower Verse

The tired motion of the rusty bell just humming, visitor I quit, go to hell I've been the tower but now walk along there must be marks on every page from the past to these songs.

Prechorus

In that sound of sighing, that empty howl
and all the everloving bends in the line of your tries
some ends forgotten and some others believed
whatever happened to the boy is now a tale for the seas

Chorus

like the grass wither to become
again and free,

End on Bbsus2 = x02200
it's all we'll ever be
