** I think his guitar is tuned in open D, with a capo somewhere.

This tab is in standard tuning, with a capo on the 1st fret. **

** Odd verses go G Em C D, even verses go C D G. ****

G Em C

I sense a runner in the garden

D

Although my judgement s known to fail

G Em C

Once built a steamboat in a meadow

Cos I d forgotten how to sail

C                      D                      G
I know the runner s going to tell you

C                      D                      G

There ain t no cowboy in my hair

C                      D                      G

So now he s buried by the daisies

C So I could stay the tallest man in your eyes, babe

G Em C

I sense a spy up in the chimney

D

From all the evidence I ve burned

G Em C

I guess he ll read it in the smoke now

D

And soon to ashes I ll return

C                      D                      G

I know the spy is going to tell you

C D G

It s not my flag up in the pole

C                      D                      G

So now he s buried by the lilies

C D G

So I could stay forever more in your eyes, babe

G Em C
I sense a leak inside my phone now
D
From all the lies I have told
G Em C
I know he has your private number
D
And soon he ll make that vicious call

C D G
I know the leak is going to tell you
C D G
There ain t now puppy in your leash
C D G
So now he ll fertilize the roses
C D G
So I could stay the king you see

G C
In your eyes, babe
G C
In your eyes, babe

G Em C
So now we re dancing through the garden
D
And what a garden I have made
G Em C
And now that death will grow my jasmine
D
I find it soothing I m afraid

C D G
Now there is no need for suspicion
C D G
There ain t no frog kissing your hand
C D G
I won t be lying when I tell you
C D G
That I m a gardner I m a man

G Em C D
In your eyes, babe
G Em C D
In your eyes, babe
G Em C Em
In your eyes, babe

** Great song. **
