[Intro]

G C G D G Em C D G

[Verse]

(Often times the first C in the verse is a C7 for some of the strums)

G G C G D

I want your sincerity, you know. I want a song that will dig into my bones. I want a place to live where I can

Em C D G F Em (x4)

raise my kids, settle down with you and call it a home

[Verse]

G C G D

I want a town as big as New York, where the masses and the buildings are born. I want an anonymous place where

Em C D G F Em

(x4)

nobody knows my name; if that were possible, I wouldn't need much anymore

[Verse]

G C G D G Em

I want a bar where I can drink until my face turns numb. Gimme a bottle of wine so I can kill some time;

C D G F Em (x4)

I don't gotta prove anything to anyone

[Bridge]

C G C G

When I get back to the house, a binding webbing forms

C G C [Riff 1] G F Em

(x4)

Dream of hell-bound barking dogs, and then walk back out the door

If I get this far when I grow old, I won't want for any fortune of gold

[Verse]

G C G D
 A lover s eye does define a life that is good and true
 G Em C D G D G
 Many a times I ve been chilled to the spine because I wanted you
