

I Got A Curse The Thermals

I Got a Curse by Hutch and Kathy of The Thermals

This rare and extremely catchy song is from the Take-Away show that Hutch and Kathy put on. I came across it on youtube and it was stuck in my mind for days until I hashed out the chords and lyrics. So here they are. Enjoy.

Thereâ€™s a curse on my head

Bm

Every year Iâ€™m awake

D

Thereâ€™s a curse on my head

Bm

Every mirror I break

A

Yeah a curse

Bm

Now I need it be known

It never leaves me alone

Bm

Iâ€™ve never seen it though

Thereâ€™s a curse on my head

Itâ€™s killing the light

A curse on my head

But itâ€™s feeling alright

Yeah a curse

It follows everywhere I go

It calls everyone I know

Then hangs up the phone

Oh way oh

Solo

Thereâ€™s a curse on my head

Every fear I think

A curse on my head

Every beer I drink

Yeah a curse

My life is a mess

I used to stress

But I just got used to it

Thereâ€™s a curse on my head

Iâ€™m draining now
Thereâ€™s a curse on my head
Whoâ€™s that hating me now
Yeah a curse
It melts everything away
I think itâ€™s in my DNA
But I canâ€™t really say

Em

It takes control of my mind

It takes the whole of my time

Besides it kinda hurts

Bm

Hey hey

Em

I tried to hide it

I tried to fight it

I only made it worse

Em

Yeah Iâ€™ve got a curse

Solo

Thereâ€™s a curse on my head
I see it as a gift
A curse on my head
I hope it never lifts
Yeah a curse
I think I like it this way
I canâ€™t remember my name
Donâ€™t need it anyway

Thereâ€™s a curse on my head
I dreamed it would leave
A curse on my head
Now I need it to breathe
Yeah a curse
Now I thrive anew
It reminds me of you
And of me and you

It takes control of my mind
It takes the whole of my time
But itâ€™s donâ€™t got me beat
No nooo
We get along
It makes me strong
It makes me complete
Yeah complete

Yeah Iâ€™ve got a curse

Solo
