

A Night On Earth
The Tossers

This is my first posted song and it s strictly the chords. If it s not 100% accurate, leave some feedback so I can change my notes.

The Tossers
A Night on Earth

Intro:(One verse without guitar chords in background)Verse chords once through.

C F
Well, tonight is our last night on Earth my friends,
C Am
So let s sleep with the stars as our ceiling,
F C
And kiss me one time and please make it good,
C G C
It could be our last night until morn.
C F
Well I guess I know that I ll always be,
C Am
The one and only one for me,
F C
But I hope that this once we can dance this dance,
C G C
What s to be seen now together we ll see.
C F
Oh the train it rolls hard on the cold steel track,
C Am
But that s not the way that I m goin,
F C
I will step on a dove, have her fly me above,
C G C
And freighter me back into home.
(Verse Chords Once Through as Instrumental)
C F
Well tonight at the bottom of the deepest lake,
C Am
There s a pillow to bed down and slumber,
F C
Just to falter our crowns, red beard blow the man down,
C G C
And let him come down to the heather.
C F
Well tonight is the last night on Earth my friends,
C Am
So let s save this together forever,
F C

And all pause and yield, burn life through this field,

C G C
Tonight's stars let's just spend them together.

C F C Am
Oh low lie the fields of Athenry,

C G
Where once we watched the small free birds fly,

C F C G
Our love was on the wing, we had dreams and songs to sing,

G C
Now it's lonely round the fields of Athenry.

C F C Am
Oh low lie the fields of Athenry,

C G
Where once we watched the small free birds fly,

C F C G
Our love was on the wing, we had dreams and songs to sing,

G C
Now it's lonely round the fields of Athenry,

G C F C
Now it's lonely round the fields of Athenry.

That is it, there is really no chorus to the song so it's the same chords throughout.

are a few minor strumming pattern changes which you tell easily from listening to the Look forward to some feedback. Thank you all!
