[Verse 1]

	D
September seventeen
	G
To a girl I know it s mothers day
	D
Her son has gone alee
	A
And that s where he will stay
	D
Wind on the weathervane
	G
Tearing blue eyes sailor mean
	D
As Falstaff sings a sorrowful refrain
C	D
For a boy on Fiddler s Green

[Verse 2]

D

His tiny knotted heart

G

Well I guess it never worked too good

D

The timber tore apart

A

And the water gorged the wood

D

You can hear her whispered prayer

G

For men at masts that always lean

D

The same wind that moves her hair

C

D

Moves her boy through Fiddler s Green

[Bridge]

A

G

Oh, nothing s changed anyway

A

G

Oh, nothing s changed anyway

D

Anytime today

[Verse 3]

D

He doesn t know a soul

G

And there s nowhere that he s really been

D

But he won t travel long alone

A

No not on Fiddler s Green

D

Balloons all filled with rain

G

As children s eyes turn sleepy mean

D

And Falstaff sings a sorrowful refrain

D

For a boy on Fiddler s Green
