Bad boys at the back of the bus,
Theyâ€™re kicking up a storm,
Theyâ€™re kicking up a fuss about something,
That you know you never did,
This is something a kid should never witness
Whataâ€™s this, catâ€™s got your tongue,
Left right pocket he brandishes a gun,
Is it a fake one, well who could ever tell?
As you wish to god, youâ€™d be saved by the stop bell

F#m
Conductor or CCTV,
A
But no oneâ€™s out there whoâ€™s willing to help me,
E
In this what is my one time of need,
B
Thoughts spinning, kicking up a speed

F#m
Is this what free travel costs?
A phone and a wallet and a new iPod
E
Your grace and your last shreds of dignity

B
Are thrown away as you begin to plead
F#m
For what you believe could be your life or your teeth
A
Your love or your money or your wife to be
Thereâ€™s answers to questions youâ€™ll forever seek
B
Why did you do this to me?

F#5 E5 A5 B5 F#5 x4

F#m
Itâ€™s a sad sorry state of affairs
A
Looking there and everywhere for someone who cares
E
Someone to be there and see
Iâ€™ve nowhere to go
F#m
But to go where the flowers grow
A
Live among the garden stones
Thereâ€™s nowhere for this boy
to roam

F#m
Bad boys with toy guns
On the last train in the setting sun
Make up for one long
walk home

F#m
Is this what free travel costs?
A phone and a wallet and a new iPod
Your grace and your last shreds of dignity
B
Are thrown away as you begin to plead
F#m
For what you believe could be your life or your teeth
A
Your love or your money or your wife to be

Thereâ€™s answers to questions youâ€™ll forever seek

B
Why did you do this to me?
