C
The days run together
C
They crowd at your front gate
F
But you can't let them in
Am                    G
So you tell them to wait

C
And one by one
C
They file up the driveway
F
And your bell is still ringing
Am                    G
As down goes the day

C
So you take off your shoes
C
And you turn up the volume
F
And they all go to sleep
Am                    G
While you're safe in your room

C
And in your bed at night
C
A stranger sleeps beside
F
And she opens your wardrobe
Am                    G
And she fumbles inside

Chorus:

C

Let me in, let me in

F

Or ill blow your house down

Am

Let me in, let me in

G

Cause there s snow on the ground

C

I won t wait here forever

F

And then you will see

Am

You should never say never

G

Cause I sow what you reap

C

They huddle on your doorstep

C

As the clouds start to break

F

And they scratch at your windows

Am

G

And they bang on your gate

C

And they walk on your doormat

C

With wet muddy shoes

F

And now and then the lights go out

Am

G

Cause they ve stolen the fuse

C

And sometimes in the night

C

You answer the phone

F

And they breathe down the line

Am

G

Just to see if you re home

C

They sing in your garden

C

Like dogs when the fight

F

And the noise that they make

Am

G

Drills holes in the night

Chorus
