

Buried Myself Alive
The Used

I don't think the band has played it like this, but I do it all the time.

Intro:

G, E5m, Em, C, D

Verse 1:

G2

You almost always pick the best times

Em2

C

to drop the worst lines, you almost made me cry again this time

another false alarm, red flashing lights,

Em

well this time I'm not going to watch myself dye.

G

I think I made it a game to play your game

Em2

and let myself cry,

C

I buried myself alive on the inside,

D

so I could shut you out,

Em

and make you go away for a long time.

Chorus:

G

E5m

I guess it's ok I puked today away.

Em

C

I guess it's better you trap yourself in your own way.

D

But if you want me back,

Em open C

you gonna have to ask, nicer than that!

Verse 2:

G2

I think the chain broke away

Em2

and I felt it the day that I had my own time.

C

I took advantage of myself and felt fine.

D

Em

But it was worth the night, I caught an early flight and I made it home.

Chorus;

Bridge:

Em open C

Nicer than that.

Interlude: You figure out the struming.

With my foot on your neck I,

Finally have you.

Right where I want you.

Right where I want you.

Right where I want you!
