

Light With A Sharpened Edge
The Used

My first tab, transcribed from piano. Probably not 100% accurate but it s close enough. Enjoy!

Intro: Bm D A G x2

Verse 1:

Bm                    D                    A
Free from the torment of sin
                                 G
All this I m giving up much as
         Bm                    D                    A
The sun would decide to give in
                                 G
Explode into orange and
                                 Bm                    D                    A
Hear all the voices sing praises with hymns
                                 G                    Bm
Mark the birth of a change
                                 D                    A
Free from the torment of sin
                                 G
All this I m giving up

Pre-chorus: G

Chorus:

D                    F#m
It s not me
                                 G                    D
Bury wreckage my soul
                                 F#m
It s not me
                                 G
So who am I now?

Verse 2:

Bm                    D                    A
Over and over again
                                 G
Light with a sharpened edge
                                 Bm                    D                    A
Cuts through the black empty space we call sky
                                 G
Beginning the cycle that stays

Bm            D            A
And I know in my heart we all die
G                    Bm
Like the day and the night
D                    A
Like the sun in the sky
G
All this I m giving up

Pre-chorus: G

Chorus x2:

D                    F#m
It s not me
G                    D
Bury wreckage my soul
F#m
It s not me
G
So who am I now?

Bridge:

Bm            Bb            D
Is there another side
Beyond the black and white?
Bm            Bb            D
A place I could meet you by
A place on the other side
Bm    Bb            D
I ll let you know when I go
Bm    Bb            D
I ll let you know when I go
When I m gone

Interlude: Bm D A G x4

Chorus:

D                    F#m
It s not me
G                    D
Bury wreckage my soul
F#m
It s not me
G
So who am I now?
