Burn
The Vamps

        C#                                        G#
I need big dreams in city streets and bright lights
                                    Fm       Eb
 Cause this seems to make me feel alright
           C#
And I want this one and I can take
        G#                                    Fm       Eb
And I can feel myself from the brick about to break

        C#           Eb
And I be lost and alone
          Fm              C#
And I m scared to find my own
        Eb         Fm        Eb           C#
I need hope or control but something s pulling me in

                            G#
It needs to hurt so we could work
                        Fm
And I need fire, so I can burn
                      Eb
And I need love, so I can learn
C#                        G#
   I m just a boy with the world
                      Fm
At my feet to find a girl
                      Eb                         C#
Telling me to not get hurt, telling me but I won t learn
                    G#
 Cause I want you and nothing can stop this
    Fm                   Eb
So let s sit and watch this burn
          C#                 G#
And as it ends up in ashes, we sit and laugh, yeah
Fm                    Eb
We sit and watch this burn

        C#                              G#
I need your heart in both hand in my plans
                        Fm      Eb
Are to make you feel alright
              C#
But you want it all in good time
      G#                          Fm     Eb
And I get it that you ve been hurt before, no
```

        C#                Eb
And I be lost and alone
            Fm              C#
And I m scared to find my own
        Eb          Fm        Eb          C#
I need hope or control but something s pulling me in

                            G#
It needs to hurt so we could work
                        Fm
And I need fire, so I can burn
                        Eb
And I need love, so I can learn
C#                          G#
    I m just a boy with the world
                    Fm
At my feet to find a girl
                        Eb                      C#
Telling me to not get hurt, telling me but I won t learn
                    G#
 Cause I want you and nothing can stop this
    Fm                  Eb

We sit and watch this burn

Parada

(C# G# Fm Eb)
When the world gets quiet, I ll scream your name

When your lungs get tired, the air will breath the same

Don t forget me, let me ease your pain

And every heart in breaking, don t let it slip away

C#                                  G#
   It needs to hurt so we could work
                        Fm
And I need fire, so I can burn
                        Eb
And I need love, so I can learn
C#                          G#
    I m just a boy with the world
