

Birds
The Veils

hide this tab

	Bm	F#	F#m	Em	A
e	---4----	4----	4----	2----	7-
B	---5----	4----	4----	2----	7-
G	---6----	5----	4----	2----	8-
D	---6----	6----	6----	4----	9-
A	---4----	6----	6----	4----	9-
E	---4----	4----	4----	2----	7-

	Bm		F#m
Through the charred black winter trees
	Em		Bm
I hear their voices sing to me.
	Bm		F#m
Fearsome black birds crying high,
	Em		Bm
But there ll be no warning when I die.
	Bm		F#m
Some lonesome sparrow saying don t you know
	Em		Bm
that you re gone forever when you go

	A		Bm
Oh, and i hear them calling
	A		Bm
Through my window every morning
	A		Bm
Your life dear boy means nothing
	F#m		F#
Say the birds, The birds, the birds

interlude

Bm

	Bm		F#m
Then by the willow I did see
	Em		Bm
A swarm of buzzing honey bees
	Bm		F#m

Good morning honey bees I cried
Em Bm
But to me they offered no reply
Bm F#m
And that fearsome black bird answered instead
Em Bm
Boy there s now a price put on your head

A Bm
Oh, and I hear em them calling
A Bm
From my window every morning
A Bm
Your life, dear boy, means nothing
F#m F#
Say the birds, the birds, the birds.

interlude

Bm

F#m A Bm
No use hiding in the water.
F#m A Bm
No use hiding in the square.
F#m A Bm F#m
Know those eyes are looking for you everywhere.

Bm F#m
Well you ll be glad my love to hear,
Em Bm
One morning they did all disappear.
Bm F#m
Tired of all the summer rain,
Em Bm
they made their nest inside my brain.
Bm F#m
But don t worry darling, pay it no mind
Em Bm
true friends like these are hard to find.

A Bm
Now I no longer hear em calling
A Bm
From my window every morning
A Bm
And my life, at last means something
F#m F#
Say the birds, the birds, the birds.

interlude

Bm