The Veils

Intro:    C#   G#   F#   G#

C#	G#	F#
Berenice, my hands, my	feet	are worn
G#
As much as yours are

C#                                  G#                      F#

And though my head, my hands, my heart are forming

G#

They still feel worlds apart

C# G# F# G#

C#                                  G#                                  F#
Berenice, beneath it all you're golden
G#
And that's all I'm feeding on

[illegible]

(Cue drums and bass)

C#                      G#                      F#
Berenice, there's no release at all
G#
That's not worth dying for.

C# G# F# G#

C#                      G#                      F#
Berenice, my hands my feet are worn
                        G#
As much as yours are

C# G# F# G#

C#	G#	F#
Berenice there's	no release at all
	G#
That's not worth	dying for

C#	G#	F#
And it's not for our desires but our design
G#
that we all fall apart

C# G# F# G#

C#	G#	F#
Berenice there's	no release at all
	G#
That's worthless	crying for

C#                                  G#                                  F#
And I don't mind leaving, don't mind leaving now
G#
Cause we all fall down.
