

The Stars Came Out Once The Lights Went Out
The Veils

Capo on 4th

Em C
I m caught between the pen and the page
G
Lost in the remains of the age
B
Daddy when you were young was it all this strange?

Em C
Fear s inching up the ridge of my spine

The talking clock reminded me
G B
I ve never felt all myself and I don t know why

C
I can t seem to get to grips with it
A
I almost touched my fingertips to it
G B
Why oh my oh my?

C
Then the stars came out once the lights went out
A
And I could not speak so I had to shout
G B
And then the moon passed sadly by.

C Em G 4x

Em C
The joys are few and far between
G
I ve got the doomsday app. on my iPhone screen
B
Honey, I ve seen the truth and it s worse than it seemed

Em

Sins derived and sins original

C

Lies eclipsed and lies made visible

B

I m turning my back on the world and fixing my eyes on the sky

C

I can t seem to get to grips with it

A

I almost touched my fingertips to it

G

B

Why oh my oh my?

C

Then the stars came out once the lights went out

A

And I could not speak so I had to shout

G

B

And then the moon passed sadly by

C Em G 2x

C Em

Em

Love will I see you again

G

C

Em

Cause I could do with some mending

G

C

Em

Love, will I see you again

G

C

Em

Cause I m through with pretending

C

Will I see you again?

G

G

Will I see you again

(Fade Out with C Em G)

I m confident this is correct. If you d prefer to play it without Capo, simply use the transpose function and tune it up four steps.

Enjoy :)
