Artist: The Verve
Song: Blue
Album: A Storm in Heaven

Tabbed by: Revlin

Getting close to 20 years and I can't find any matter of tab for this song?
That just won't do, so I spat this one out quick. Won't claim it's perfect but it's a start.

Guitar lick repeated throughout

A|-----7h9-----7h9-----|
E|--7h9----7h9-----|

B (with rhythmic palm mutes)

There you were, on the floor,
Cut up and all alone, Iâ€™ll help you,
Conceived in a chrome dream,
I was the crease in the shirt that this world wears,

Till I met blue, I was in obscurity,
He said, â€œListen up, who do you want to be?â€•
We could steal a car and listen to the stars,
I can see youâ€™ve choked on them too,
Had enough of late night films,
Just settle for an hour or two,

Oh blue, show me something new,
Oh blue, show me something new,

G Em D A
Blue, Iâ€™ve got a question every time I hold you,

G Em D A
Yeah blue, Iâ€™ve got a question every time I swallow you,
Itâ€™s true.

B (with rythmic palm mutes)

Spike danced for ten days long,
We were just heading for the sun,
You shot him down,
There s blood on my face,
His heart s in the right place,

What they gonna do to you?
What they gonna do?

G Em D A
Blue, don t forget the word I warned you,

G Em D A
Oh blue, don t let them push you, don t let them destroy you.

G Em D A
Meanwhile, I m searching with my brain blown eyes,

G Em D A
See the world through my dirty lonely mixed up mind.
