Verve - I See The Door

This song was not on any of their albums, but is very popular among fans, who will recognise it as a b-side to On Your Own.

One point to note is that while playing all these chords (except D) you have to hold down the first and second strings on the third fret.

I SEE THE DOOR

G Em
Light, I see ...,
C D
she s there on my floor...
G Em
fly,
C D
you re out of sight, ...
C G
she s there in a ...

C G D
no way to describe ...
C G
I burn but I ...
C G D
no way to describe it...

Chorus: Em D C D
I have seen things ...
Em D C D
looking through ...
Em D C D
open your eyes and ...
Em D C D
don t go you think ...
G Em C D

G Em
Door, I ...
C D

I see the door, I
 C G
she s there

 C G D
no way to describe it...,
 C G
what s life without ...
 C G D
no way to describe it...

Chorus: Em D C D
I have seen ...
Em D C D
Looking through ...
Em D C D
I have seen ...
Em D C D
step to the one ...
Em D C D
step to the one ...
 Em D C D
na na(repeat till fade out)

And at the end when he sings its a battle over and over, you just play Em continuously.
