

Unexpected
The View

Intro

Em C D Em

Em C D Em
Cut out your pictures now, I know that you are near.

Em C
Tack them into the frame for now,
D G G/F# Em
as I know that you ll be here.

Em C D Em
It s not just me you know, there s a lot of ruined smiles,
Em C D
And I remain so strong for them, even though,
B
I m burst inside.

Em C
It was unexpected,
D Em
But I always should have known,
Em C
That you would lead a shortened life,
D Em
coz your light was running low.

Em C D Em

Em C D Em
Felt I was one with you, and you reassured my head,
Em C D G G/F# Em
Didn t seem the same when you were lying in your bed.
Em C D Em
No trips to our secret place since you left me on my own,
Em C D B
You said that you would never leave and your soul would linger on.

Em C
It was unexpected,
D Em
But I always should have known,
Em C
That you would lead a shortened life
D Em
as your light was running low.

C D Em
You should have told me when,

C D Em

When you decided to give in.

C D G G/F# Em

I wasn't ready for the blo-o-o-o-w,

C D D/F# Em

And now my sun has turned to snow.

Em

Em C D Em

Em C D Em

Cut out your pictures now I know that you are near.

Em C D Em

Tack them into the frame for now, as I know you won't be here.