

Torch Song
The Walkmen

Intro:

E F#m7 E F#m7
E7 F#m7 E7 F#m7

A G D A
If I had known the graceful song I should know

A G D A
To slow down all the madness, I would have sung

A G D A
A whispered melody to calm you and keep you close

A
But I don't know the tune

Bm E
It's a burden on my sorry soul

A
No, I don't have a clue

Bm E
It's a weight upon my empty skull

A G D A
If I was soundly sleeping, I'd fall into dreams

A G D A
But the night time's stale and restless, it's all wrong for me.

A G D A
The night time's stale and restless, it's all wrong for me.

Bridge: E F#m7 E7 F#m7

A
I don't know the tune

Bm E
It's a burden on my sorry soul

A
No I don't have a clue

Bm E

A weight upon my empty skull.

Outro: A G D E

Play until song fades out