where d you learn to treat me like (that*)

You don t seem to have any of that famous stuff
You know that hardwood flows law is pennieless rough
You grandfather follows you like a heart attack
Twist your finger soon as break your, back

It s comin from another withered mother whose just like yours
Briging hairs and all those mental sores
Take a little have some need some for yourself
The needy and greedy always seem by themselves
Well it, must be hard to be one of these Hiding under the shed under your friends tree
Didn t i meet you once in a liqour store
I think I saw you hangin by the stage door
Handing out programs to the family theatre
To hide low so you don t miss the treater

Em Am G F Em Dm

Take it, why take it, fast as ever, get, yourself, a chance

Chorus(that, that that that*)
