Hollywood
(words & music by Jakob Dylan)

Like most of these Wallflowers transcriptions that I do, the lyrics are definitely not exactly what they are supposed to be:

Intro: C F Am G C F Am G

C F
Talk so loud, you talk so much
Am
Well you talk so funny
G
But honey what you talking about?
C F
Something about being or being reimbursed
Am G
For every end registered, fireness

C F Am G

C F
Clank pipes are filled up with dirty rain
Am G
And leisure train speeding in the diamond main
C F
With the electricity...was shut off again
Am G
Leaving the night life only for the mad men

C
Oh my God!
E
They sold Hollywood
F

Burned down my neighbourhood

G

Even shot Robin Hood

Am

Oh my God!

Em

Guess it was never understood

Am

To understand brotherhood

Fmaj7

C

Right from wrong and the bad...from the good

F Am G

C

F

Everybody~s got their own smoke screens

Am

G

With a personal armies for everyone in between

C

F

With plastic raffles given to every tear

Am

G

What a beautiful dream where all the boats have guarantees

C

Oh my God!

E

They sold Hollywood

F

Burned down my neighbourhood

G

Even shot Robin Hood

Am

Oh my God!

Em

Guess it was never understood

Am

To understand brotherhood

Fmaj7

C

Right from wrong and the bad...from the good

C F Am G

C

F

There~s the sweetest weave-bow image detector

Am

G

As sweet as nectar, an overrated candy dispenser

C

F

She don~t get food to eat or anybody, any place to sleep

Am

G

She can tell you what you can or what you can~t create

C

Oh my God!

E

They sold Hollywood

F

Burned down my neighbourhood

G

Even shot Robin Hood

Am

Oh my God!

Em

Guess it was never understood

Am

To understand brotherhood
