Even you are gonna need someone

That ain t a trick of light

Or the morning haze

Coming in from the lake

Getting into your eyes

It s the invisible breath

Of a storm on the rise

That I feel whenever you arrive

Now I may not be quick

Maybe never was

G

This ain t a righteous love

Even a good one

These ain t the kinds of returns

I was thinking of

I m unbearable now

You ain t seen nothing yet

You ll see me dead

Before you see me quit

That ain t a jug of wine

That you ve been drinking from

Now lay back now baby

Let your fever come

I will you bury you in

Just to dig you out

I haven t a use

For being proud

The deeper the slide

The higher the rise

But don t be disapointed

How I usin mine

(repeat chorus)

C/D(2) D5

I think I made a mistake

C/D(2) D5

I pushed when you said to wait

G

But I never get to hold you

I follow you deep into a barren field

There was someone you were running from

When I need to sleep

That s when you disappeared
But I did get the impossible done

Now I always knkew
There was God inside you
I just never did learn which one

(repeat chorus)
