Nearly Beloved by The Wallflowers words and music by Jakob Dylan

G D Em
C D Em

G D Em
Last night I dreamt one thousand lives
C D Em
I could see the dawn through a different set of eyes
G D Em
There in my slumber passing time
C D Em
Long live the world resting on its side

C G
I walked the orchard with you
D Em
Your hand in my mine
C G B7
In the evergreens drinking wine
Em D C G
I saw the snow fall in black and white from the auburn sky
B7 Em
Last night I lived more than one thousand lives
D G
Not one of them survived

Up through the earth and dawn I came
I crossed the kingdom through venom pouring rain
In the vacuum of my own brigade
Resurrected to make you mine again

Orpheus looked back once, she sailed the underworld
No second chances will be earned
I have returned as a phantom now to walk the bow and stern
B7 Em
Last night I lived more than one thousand lives
D C
Not one of them survived

Em Bm
If we could do better I know that we would
C G D
Maybe admit it now, we re not that good
Em Em

We keep the needle between zero and one

C G D C

You play your fiddle, baby, I ll play dumb

Into the pastures of our minds

Goes my nearly beloved and I

Blazing two parallel white lines

Through this broken heart spilled open wide

Time might be on my side

But it s mostly far behind

I was the apple of your eye

Now I m the boy spinning on a wheel there stuck with knives

Last night I lived more than one thousand lives
