The Passenger by The Wallflowers
words and music by Jakob Dylan

Intro: C F G C

C F
Permission now to let this thing land
G C
I m too far gone to know where I am
C F
Conditions are worse than we planned
G C
Permission now to let this thing land

C F
Heading straight into the blackness
C F
Beyond the point of ever turning back
C F
Slipping off the radar through a hole in space
G C
Goes the passenger sitting backwards

Adam took the apple
I was not involved
I m not responsible for how lost we are
Batten down the hatches, extinction calls
But Adam took the apple
I was not involved

Heading straight into the blackness
Way beyond the point of ever turning back
Slipping off the radar through a hole in space
Goes the passenger sitting backwards

G
Maybe a rumble
C
Maybe nothing more
G
Maybe a thunder
C
There before she blows
(I can t figure this out right now...I will later)
Maybe not a big bang
But just a little white noise

Key Change : Eb G# Bb Eb

then it changes back

F

Into the furnace of red twilight

C

Threading like a needle through searchlights

Fading further and spinning right

Into the furnace of red twilight

Heading straight into the blackness

Too far gone, now there s no turning back

Slipping off the radar into a hole in space

Goes the passenger sitting backwards
