The Wanted

Woah.
F#   C#
I hear your heart, cry for love.
                              Ebm
But you won t let me make it right.
                    C#
You were hurt, but I decided,
                        F#
That you were worth the fight
                    C#
Every night, you lock up.
                  Ebm
You won t let me come inside.
                    C#
But the look, in your eyes.
Says that I could turn the tide.

                        Ebm
On everything that we could be.
                    C#
If loneliness would move out,
