

Taken from the group's third album Word Of Mouth (Deluxe Edition), great song and quite powerful. If you guys don't know already, Jay McGuinness a fifth of the group, wrote the song alongside Paddy Dalton and it focuses on those who struggle with addictions and finding a way out, real meaningful song!

Verse

During the Pre-Chorus which is:

I like to play the riff over the top which is something like this:

hide this tab

e |-----|
b |-----|
g |-----|
d |-----0-0-----|
a |-----0---3-3-----3-0-----|
E |--3-----3--1--|

NOTE: listen to the song to figure out when the riff is played over the Pre-Chorus!

Chorus

F G Am C G F
Only you, can dig yourself out just before you break down
F G Am C G F
only you, can lift yourself up just before you get stuck
F G Am
all of this pain spread all over your face
C G F all I wanna do is help you out of this place
F G Am C G F F
only you, so hurry up now just before you run out of time
G Am C G F
before you run out of time

verse 2

F G Am C G F
Beautiful, that s the only way I see you
F G Am C G F
nobody else, can love you in the way that I do
F G Am
sometimes I get worried that you re taking on too much
C G F
and this crazy world we live in doesn t really give a fk
F G Am
if only we could paddle to a place where it was just C G F
you and I

Repeat Pre Chorus

Repeat Chorus

Bridge

The order for these chords is as follows:

Am C G F x2

NOTE: listen to the song to figure out when the chords are played

Repeat Chorus once more that s pretty much it, be sure to rate and comment and also message me if you have a song you want to see on the site and I d be more than happy to give it a go! :)