The Watanabes

***Standard Tuning with Capo on the 2nd fret***

C                                      Am                                      Em                                      G
Any colour you want, any style you want is there, it s there for you.

C                                      Am
Even if you want red, even if you want blue.

Dm                                      Am
Pink, yellow or emerald green,

F                                      Em                                      G
The colours of your favourite team are waiting there for you.

C                                      Am                                      Em                                      G
Running up hills, I m running up hills to find a better view.

C                                      Am                                      Dm                                      Am
Up past the park and the animal zoo, lions tigers and queens and kings,

F                                      Em                                      G
Past a pair of arching swings waiting there for you.

                                    Em                      Dm                                      G
I can see your face from here, sometimes when the weather s clear.

                                    Em                                      F      Em      F      Em      F      Em      G
And I can hear my heart up here. It goes badabababadabababadabababadam.

Instrumental - C   Am   Em   G   C   Am   Dm   Am   F   Em   G

C                                      Am
There are ghosts around here. There are ghosts around here.

                    Em                      G
Don t worry. Don t be scared.

C                                      Am
Cause not long ago, they were much like you,

                    Dm                      Am
And even now they re much the same,

F                                      Em                                      G
Taking shelter from the rain, waiting for the view.

                                    Em                      Dm                                      G
I can see your face from here, sometimes before you disappear.

                                    Em                                      F      Em      F      Em      F      Em      G
And I can hear my heart up here. It goes badabababadabababadabababadam.
