Am7 Cmaj7 There wasn t much I could say to express my confusion At least in Japanese anyway. Am7 Cmaj7 Em I was struck by the smell of the staff-room and the dog-like procedure involved Cmaj7 when I went to the bathroom. It was a struggle back then. But now... I ve learned to use the toilet, C And now after failing niikyu I can speak nihongo, or whatever they call it. Now I can ask a girl for her phone number C And after 12 long months I m pretty bloody good at ikebana. Am7 Cmaj7 Em D When I arrived in my town, they said there s a super(market) down the road, Am7 Cmaj7 Em And it s not too far. It took two hours by train and another hour by car. Am7 Cmaj7 I made a nice group of friends in my town, They were a very friendly bunch, Am7 Cmaj7 Em But they didn t get let out of the old peoples home, that much. G D C But now... I ve made friends my own age,

And now I can read a menu, well at least the first page.

C

And now I understand that people don t mean to be dicks,

When they say with a patronizing smile, that I m good with chopsticks.

Am7 Cmaj7

I have grown to love the love princess,

Em D Am7

I just wish I had a little more success with the opposite sex,

Cmai7 Em

or if I was gay then with the same sex. (Repeat Twice)

*Note: D on the verse is played in the shape of C 2 frets up.

Note: The album version is played with the guitar tuned two steps down.
