When Ye Go Away

From the glorious Fishermans Blues

Sounds good played with a capo at the fifth. Sounds like mike scott had a capo there he recorded it to me...

The wee lead lick thats normally played on slide:

```
e|-----5-----|
B|-----|
G|-----5h7-----7p5-----5--5--5h7---|
D|-----7-----7-----|
A|-----|
```

D Am
Now he s brought down the rain
C D
and the indian summer is through
D Am
In the morning you ll be following
C
your trail again fair play to you
D Am
You ain t calling me to join you
C
and I m spoken for anyway
D Am C D
But I will cry when ye go away
D D Am D
I will cry when ye go away

D Am
Your beauty is familiar
C D
and your voice is like a key
D Am
That opens up my soul
C
And torches up a fire inside of me

D Am
Your coat is made of magic
C
and around your table angels play
D Am C D
And I will cry when ye go away
D Am C D
I will cry when ye go away

D Am
Somebody left us whisky
C D
and the night is very young
D Am
I ve got some to say and more to tell
C
and the words will soon be spilling from my tongue
D Am
I will rave and I will ramble
C
I ll do everything but make you stay
D Am C D
Then I will cry when ye go away
D Am C D
I will cry when ye go away
