When Ye Go Away The Waterboys

-The Waterboys-

When Ye Go Away

From the glorious Fishermans Blues

Sounds good played with a capo at the fifth. Sounds like mike scott had a capo there he recorded it to me...

The wee lead lick thats normally played on slide:

e
B
G 5h77p555h7
D 77
A
Е

D Am Now he s brought down the rain С D and the indian summer is through D Am In the morning you ll be following С your trail again fair play to you D Am You ain t calling me to join you С and I m spoken for anyway Am C D D But I will cry when ye go away D D Am D I will cry when ye go away

D Am Your beauty is familiar С D and your voice is like a key D Am That opens up my soul C And torches up a fire inside of me DAmYour coat is made of magicCand around your table angels playDAm CAnd I will cry when ye go awayDAm CJI will cry when ye go away

D Am Somebody left us whisky C D and the night is very young D Am I ve got some to say and more to tell C and the words will soon be spilling from my tongue D Am I will rave and I will ramble C I ll do everything but make you stay Am C D D Then I will cry when ye go away D Am C D I will cry when ye go away