When Ye Go Away

From the glorious Fishermans Blues

Sounds good played with a capo at the fifth. Sounds like mike scott had a capo there he recorded it to me...

The wee lead lick thats normally played on slide:

e|-----5-----|
B|-----|
G|-----5h7-----7p5-----5--5--5h7---|
D|-----7-----7-----|
A|-----|

Eb Bbm
Now he s brought down the rain
C# Eb
and the indian summer is through
Eb Bbm
In the morning you ll be following
C#
your trail again fair play to you
Eb Bbm
You ain t calling me to join you
C#
and I m spoken for anyway
Eb Bbm C# Eb
But I will cry when ye go away
Eb Eb Bbm Eb
I will cry when ye go away

Eb Bbm
Your beauty is familiar
C# Eb
and your voice is like a key
Eb Bbm
That opens up my soul
C#
And torches up a fire inside of me

Eb Bbm
Your coat is made of magic
and around your table angels play
Eb Bbm C# Eb
And I will cry when ye go away
Eb Bbm C# Eb
I will cry when ye go away

Eb Bbm
Somebody left us whisky
C# Eb
and the night is very young
Eb Bbm
I ve got some to say and more to tell
C#
and the words will soon be spilling from my tongue
Eb Bbm
I will rave and I will ramble
C#
I ll do everything but make you stay
Eb Bbm C# Eb
Then I will cry when ye go away
Eb Bbm C# Eb
I will cry when ye go away
