When Ye Go Away The Waterboys

-The Waterboys-

When Ye Go Away

From the glorious Fishermans Blues

Sounds good played with a capo at the fifth. Sounds like mike scott had a capo there he recorded it to me...

The wee lead lick thats normally played on slide:

Eb Bbm

Now he s brought down the rain

C# Eb

and the indian summer is through

Eb Bbm

In the morning you ll be following

C#

your trail again fair play to you

Eb Bbm

You ain t calling me to join you

C#

and I ${\tt m}$ spoken for anyway

Eb Bbm C# Eb

But I will cry when ye go away

Eb Eb Bbm Eb

I will cry when ye go away

Eb Bbm

Your beauty is familiar

C# E

and your voice is like a key

Eb Bbm

That opens up my soul

C#

And torches up a fire inside of me

Eb Bbm

Your coat is made of magic
C#

and around your table angels play
Eb Bbm C# Eb

And I will cry when ye go away
Eb Bbm C# Eb

Eb Bbm Somebody left us whisky

C# Eb

and the night is very young

I will cry when ye go away

Eb Bbm

I ve got some to say and more to tell and the words will soon be spilling from $\ensuremath{\mathsf{m}} y$ tongue

Eb Bbm

I will rave and I will ramble

C#

I ll do everything but make you stay

Eb Bbm C# Eb

Then I will cry when ye go away

Eb Bbm C# Eb

I will cry when ye go away
