

Southern Manners
The Watson Twins

Capo on 2nd fret

G G
well I can t tell you why I left you
A
and I don t quite know why I m here
D
but nothing has moved my spirit
G
since I saw you late last year

G G
every lover knows a reason
A
and every woman has felt the same D
although our minds record each heartache
G
a little lovin can take away the pain

(chorus)

G G
hold me, hold me, hold me close
A
caress my shoulders and my toes
D
make me forget what I can t
G
be my lover and my man

G G
a man he gives you all you need
(ooo)
some money to spend and a kiss when you please D (ooo)
when you re broke down on the road
G (ooo)
he ll come on by and lighten your load

G G
well I guess I owe you something too
A
well it seems you ve finally come on through

and my southern manners do oblige

G

won't you come on over for a slice of pie?

(chorus)

G

G

hold me, hold me, hold me close

A

caress my shoulders and my toes
