

Aside

The Weakerthans

Tuning: Half-Step down

[Intro] (x2)

G, D, C

[Verse 1]

G

Measure me in metered lines

Bm

And one decisive stare

D

C

The time it takes to get from here to there

G

My ribs that show through t-shirts

Bm

And these shoes I got for free

D

I m unconsolated

C

I m lonely, I am

C

Bm

A

So much better than I used to be

[Instrumental] (x2)

G, D, C

[Verse 2]

(same chords as verse 1)

Terrified of telephones

And shopping malls and knives

Drowning in the pools of other lives

Rely a bit too heavily

On alcohol and irony

Get clobbered on

By courtesy

C

Bm

A

In love with love and lousy poetry

[Chorus]

C

And I m leaning on this broken fence

Em

C

Between past and present tense

C

And I m losing all those stupid games

Em

C

That I swore I d never play

Em D G D C G D C

But it almost feels okay

Bm D

Circumnavigate this body

Em D C

Of wonder and uncertainty

Bm D

Armed with every precious failure

Em D C

And amateur cartography

I m breathing deep before

D C Bm A

I spread those maps out on my bedroom floor

[Chorus]

G C

And I m leaning on this broken fence

Em C

Between past and present tense

G C

And I m losing all those stupid games

Em C

That I swore I d never play

Em D G D C

But it feels okay And I m leaving with goodbye

G D C

And I m losing but I ll try

Em D

With the last ways left

Em D

To remember sing

Em D G

My imperfect offering
